COAL TRUST CONTEST CLEAR RULING

Counsel for Metropolitan Coal Company Says Appeal Will Be Filed Soon.

PRICE STILL AT TOP RATE

The local Coal Trust declares today that it will appear to the courts from the decision of Secretary of State, and pending its decision, on the ground that it is charging extortionate rates for coal.

The notice of contest has been officially issued through the Coal Trust counsel, Horace G. Allen. Mr. Allen said to a representative of the BOSTON AMERICAN today: "The Metropolitan Coal Company will go into court, but the date when we will file our appeal has not been decided. It will be soon, however. Further than this, I have nothing to say."

Starting after the case administered them by the Secretary of State is not pending their hearing, the officials of the Coal Trust are concentrating all their energies in preparing their appeal to the courts. It is expected that the case will be heard by the Supreme Court, one conference.

President Edward Hanna and Frank J. Hanna of the local Coal Trust, when seen at their business street office refused to answer any of the questions put to them. They turned the BOSTON AMERICAN reporter to their lawyer, Mr. Allen.
